Preparation for Adulthood

Why is there no mention of social care support as part of the preparation for adulthood? Also not a mention of the transitions team, which is what I was searching for! Not very helpful, sorry!

Good afternoon, I was wondering if someone would be able to advise me on applying for an EHCP for my 6 year old son please. I have spoken with the senco at his school and he is under the consultant pediatrician at St Marys. My sons school just don't appear to be very proactive at the moment so I would like to see if I could apply myself.

We did:

Thank you for your email through our Local Offer. We have asked our SEN team to investigate this and they will be in touch with you. As a parent you are quite in your right to request an SEN Assessment as stated on the Local Offer :

<https://www.iwight.com/localoffer/View/Special-educational-need-support-services/How-to-request-an-EHCP-assessment>

Please complete the Primary (Age 5-11) form that is within this document and send it to us.

We thank you for using the Local Offer to bring this to our attention. If you need any support in completing the form please contact us.

Good Afternoon,

Learning Links is now able to offer NVR workshops on the Isle of Wight. These have proved extremely successful in Hampshire and we are pleased to be able to offer this service on the Island with the first workshop to commence in January.

I am starting from scratch in the hope you may be able to help me promote this service to ensure all schools and educational settings are aware and can fully utilise this free service.

Please could you let me know who I should speak to? I have attached some information which you will hopefully find useful. We are based in Pyle Street so I could pop along to County Hall and meet with you if/when convenient.

I look forward to hearing from you.

Kind regards,

Louise

Called to speak to someone in early years, says that their son [REDACTED] currently goes to YMCA and their support worker told them to call in and speak to someone regards early years, I tried to get exactly what it was she was after however she did not give me any information, she asked for a call back tomorrow but even when asked for a message she declined to give further details, I explained that I would love the call but could not guarantee when a call would be made (as I could not track someone down and did not know the details). thanks

We did:

Thank you for your email. We have spoken to the SEN Early Years team and they are working with the families support worker to provide SEN advice with the view of a possible SEN assessment to further support their son

Autism Pre-Assessment Service (0-18)

Make it possible to give someone a direct link instead of a useless one that takes them to the local offer and no further!

We did:

Thank you for leaving your feedback, we have now added a direct link for the Autism Diagnostic Research Centre Southampton (ADRC) who carries out the assessments for Autism on the Isle of Wight. The Isle of Wight's Autism Strategy has also been added to page along with a referral route to the pre assessment service.

To whom it may concern, I am enquiring as to how I request an ehcp for my son who is currently attending secondary school. I believe it is necessary as his special needs are no longer being met. He had an iep at primary school but he's been at secondary school for six months and he is struggling massively. If you could please advise me as to how I go about this I would be very grateful. Kind regards. [REDACTED]

Hi There, I'm not sure if you can help me but I'm not sure where to go. I have a 17 year old son with ADHD. He has had a difficult year and is really struggling. I am trying to access him some support, as well as family support. We have a 2 year old daughter in the house and I'm terrified my sons behaviour will start to affect her. It is also having a detrimental impact on my marriage. My son wants to go into Public Services, which requires you to be off medication for 4 years prior to joining. This is where we are struggling, he needs to be on his medication but refuses. I just want the best for him, I want him to be happy and be able to manage his symptoms so he has a better quality of life. We moved down here last July, and ■■■ stayed in ■■■ with his father as we couldn't handle him anymore. This didn't work out well at all and his father kicked him out due to his behaviour, so he has recently moved back in with us here. I don't want to turn my back on him but we are struggling to cope and need some support but not sure what services we can access. Any help or advice would be hugely appreciated. Many thanks ■■■

I used to be the SpLD Advisory Teacher for the IW Local Authority. The role was made redundant in December 2016, so there is now no permanent dyslexia/SpLD specialist and this is not reflected in the contact information, nor in the FAQs. I am now an independent specialist assessor. I wonder if I might have my details and website listed in the WightChyps directory/Local Offer?

We Did:

Thank you for contacting the Local Offer we have the ability for services to apply to be listed. This can be done through the Local Offer home page.

Hello My name's Jamie and I'm contacting you from Success at School, an online careers advice service for young people recommended by the National Careers Service, praised by the DfE and listed as a comprehensive resource by the Careers and Enterprise Company. I'm getting in touch because we want to help Isle of Wight improve and expand the careers advice provided to local young people through its website. I see you share lots of links to additional information and other websites here:

<https://www.iwight.com/Council/OtherServices/Local-Offer-Growing-Up-16-25/About> We'd like to build on this by creating detailed original content on careers topics relevant to your visitors - for example, on apprenticeships, skills and industries in the local area. I'd be really pleased to talk more specifically about how we can work together. Thanks Jamie
