

- IPS (2.9) states that: “There are some fundamental issues the Island Planning Strategy (IPS) has to address and these include protecting our precious environment and landscape”.
- West Wight housing targets, lack of infrastructure, sacrifice of green fields and grade 2 agricultural land, lack of consultation on proposed settlement boundary changes, lack of provision for social and affordable housing does not address these needs
- The proposal to redesignate areas on the periphery of the Freshwater settlement appears perverse. It’s simply providing more homes in an area without improving employment prospects, amenities or affordability. The IPS makes no proposals to improve transport links nor basic infrastructure. This cannot be the way forward to achieve a sustainable community. This will simply attract more of an ageing population, thus perpetuating an already unbalanced and ultimately untenable position.
- The IPS rightly identifies an ageing population but makes little attempt to promote strategies which might rebalance the population. Retaining younger Islanders and attracting skilled incomers with good employment opportunities would seem to be the way forward. This also means providing for younger members of the community with schools, and sporting and leisure facilities. There are no firm proposals on these matters. The IPS appears to be more inclined to promote a strategy of managed decline.
- IPS 2.5 Over 60 per cent of the Island’s residents live in Newport, Cowes, East Cowes, Ryde, Sandown and Shanklin. Freshwater, Totland and Yarmouth are the main settlements to the west of the Island and Ventnor is the largest town on the south coast. Outside of these main settlements there are around 30 villages and hamlets’ Freshwater is a rural village, not a main settlement.
- ‘IPS 2.52 The location of the major settlements – with Cowes to the north; Ryde to the north-east; Sandown, Shanklin and Ventnor to the south-east; and Freshwater to the west’ now refers to Freshwater as major settlement. Again, it’s a rural village not a major settlement.
- Freshwater is also referred to as a ‘secondary settlement’ IPS Growth section 6: G2 : ‘Priority locations for housing development and growth. Secondary settlements: Bembridge, The West Wight (Freshwater and Totland), Wootton, and Ventnor.’ Again, it’s a rural village not a secondary settlement.
