

YOUNG INSPECTORS

The image features the text 'YOUNG INSPECTORS' in a bold, stylized font. 'YOUNG' is in yellow with a black outline, and 'INSPECTORS' is in light blue with a black outline. A magnifying glass with a black handle and a circular lens is positioned over the letter 'O' in 'INSPECTORS'. The lens shows a reflection of light, and the handle is angled downwards and to the left.

What are the Young Inspectors?

Young people with disabilities/ additional needs
'inspect' providers of positive activities...

SEND

Local Offer website

Education Health Care Plan

Personal budgets

Positive Findings from the website

- Easy to use and simple to navigate
- Relevant information and the boxes were big
- The symbols that came up when reading the text made it easier to understand
- Appropriate pictures
- Easy to find things
- Young people found their schools and SEN statements
- Good font

Recommendations for the website

- The symbols need an on and off button
- More pictures as it was grown up and boring
- A page for adults and for children
- Short breaks bigger and a list of activities
- Some wording and acronyms were hard to understand
- Not up to date
- The schools to be put in alphabetical order

Positives of the EHCP

Recommendations for The EHCP

- Font sizes and boxes need to be bigger
- Different wording (Wishes, how do you communicate)
- The outcome part needs to be explained
- Hard to express their voice about their support
- Social care provisions need to be reviewed more and it is hard to answer
- Other things need to be reworded
- Need guidance notes to help fill it out
- The plan to be broken down

Personal Budget

- Good idea
- Where can they be helped?
- Issues

So ...What has happened since

- Talking with the web team
- Spoken to Heidi about guidance notes
- This was given to Ofsted and has been spoken about to relevant people.
- Working Closely with Andrew and Young Inspectors plan to review this in 6 months.

Any Questions for our young people?